MRS. DALE LENIER VOLLEY
the former Miss Debra Elizabeth Dean

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Debra Elizabeth Dean and Lt. Dale Lenier Volley were married at 3 p.m. April 14 in Immanuel Baptist Church in a double ring ceremony officiated by Dr. George C. Park.

Musical selections were presented by Mrs. Debbie Burke, Mrs. Elora Brotherton and Lt. Col. Cephus Rhodes. They were accompanied by Bill Burke on the organ.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Dean of El Paso. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Virginia Whitted of Appomattox, Va. and Isaiah Volley of Washington, D.C.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory peau de soie in Victoria mode with beaded alencon lace bodice and tapered sleeves. The English net yoke was adorned with a sunburst of pearls. The A line skirt swept into a chapel length train. The chapel length veil of English net was appliqued with Alencon lace motifs and attached to a lace camelot cap also enhanced with pearls in a sunburst design.

She carried a colonial bouquet of ivory sweetheart roses and stephanotis in the center of white japbette, adorned with English ivy, fern and baby's breath.

Mrs. Jeri Dean served as her sister-in-law's matron of honor. Other attendants included Miss Nita Davis, Miss Lisa Brown and Mrs. Cathy Malichi. Flower girls were Miss Jennifer Grant and Monica Rae Dean, niece of the bride. Aaron David Dean, the bride's nephew, was ringbearer. Candlelighters were Dawn Renee Dean, niece of the bride, and Byron Lamont Whitted of Appomattox, Va., the bridegroom's brother.

The bride's attendants were mint green crepe knit gowns with cape collars gathered into round low necklines on fitted bodices with full skirts. They carried pink roses with pink ribbon and streamers tied in knots at varying lengths accented with baby's breath and greenery.

The flower girls wore pink eyelet empire bodiced long dresses trimmed with white lace. They carried baskets of assorted flowers.

Best man was Ricardo C. Volley of Appomattox, brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Lt. Garry Charles Dean, brother of the bride; Lt. Michael White; and Lt. Emanuel Livingston. Those serving as ushers were Don Alton Dean, brother of the bride; and Albert Boney of Houston, uncle of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Granada Royale. Miss Judy Mangram and Mrs. Shirley Boney of Houston, aunt of the bride, presided at the guest book.

Assisting with courtesies were Mrs. Tommye Boyd; Mrs. Marian Williams of Denver, Colo., cousin of the bride; Mrs. Jean Jordan; Mrs. Janette Simms; Mrs. Irma Lowman; Miss Yolanda Ramirez; Miss Ceci Corpio; and Mrs. Jewel Manning.

The bride is a graduate of Irvin High School and the University of Texas at El Paso where she was a varsity cheerleader and a charter member and president of Eta Delta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. She is a teacher with the El Paso Public Schools System.

Lt. Volley is a graduate of E. C. Glass High School in Lynchburg, Va. He received a bachelor of science degree in criminal justice from West

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Waugh Oliver of Red House, Virginia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Gaynelle, to Robert Cranford Maddux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emmett Maddux of Richmond, Virginia.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Appomattox County High School, Appomattox, Virginia and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, Blacksburg, Virginia. She is presently enrolled in the University of Virginia School of Law, Charlottesville, Virginia.

Mr. Maddux is a graduate of Kempsville High School, Virginia Beach, Virginia and The University of Richmond, Richmond, Virginia. He is enrolled in graduate school at George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

The wedding is planned for June 16th at Providence Baptist Church, Red House, Va.

Yellow was Most Popular Bridal Color

Yellow was the most popular of bridal colors in 18th century America, followed by blue, traditionally the color of the Virgin's robe.

Lilac, a flowered color, ranked as third most popular.

The beginning of the 20th century, however, saw the heavy use of bridal black, now perhaps the most verboten of bridal colors.

Virginia State College where he served as president of his senior class. He is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

The couple will be making their home in Hawaii where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Army at Schofield Barracks.

Congratulations & Best Wishes to the Graduates & Newlyweds

Mrs. Willie S. Moses

Celebrates 85th Birthday

The recreation hall of Liberty Baptist Church in Appomattox was the scene for a most beautiful and impressive occasion on Sunday, April 15th, from 2 to 4 p.m. when Mrs. Willie S. Moses celebrated her 85th birthday.

She was greeted by many friends and relatives, some from a distance, as all enjoyed the delicious refreshments of pink punch and a variety of little cakes, cookies and many dainties, including a beautiful birthday cake on a table decorated with a lovely center-piece of spring flowers, surrounded by white candles in silver holders.

Hosts for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Don Moses, Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland; Mr. and Mrs. William S. Moses of Roanoke and Mrs. Peggy M. Harvey of Appomattox and Mrs. Sandra H. Elder also of Appomattox. Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey and T. C. Harvey, III and Richard Morgan also assisted. They are all from Lynchburg.

Mrs. Moses received a recognition on this occasion from President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter.

She would like to thank all her friends and relatives for making her 85th birthday such a memorable occasion.

Love Knots

Bridesmaids in 16th century England performed many duties, the most important being the "tying of love knots" composed of colored ribbon.

These knots symbolized the wedding tie and the ribbon colors became symbolic in themselves.

Shower Honors Miss Ferguson

Miss Rita Gay Ferguson was honored Saturday, April 21, with a miscellaneous bridal shower at Mt. Comfort United Methodist Church.

Hostesses for the shower were Miss Kathy Marshall, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Debbie Washburn, both of Appomattox.

Attending the shower were Mrs. John T. Ferguson, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. James D. Marshall, mother of the groom-to-be; and also friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

The wedding of Miss Ferguson to James D. Marshall, Jr. will take place on June 23 , 1979.

All interested members are urged to attend.

Young Hearts Club Held Meeting

The Young Hearts Club met April 26th at the Memorial United Methodist Church in Appomattox. Helen Gunter welcomed the group and after singing a hymn the Rev. Leonard, pastor of the church, gave the devotional.

Mrs. Gunter reported on the sick and presided over the business meeting. It was decided to have a display of small antiques for our Bi-Centennial project at the Railroad Festival and also tapes pertaining to the old ways of doing things.

A one day trip to Yorktown on May 31st was decided on. There will be no regular meeting in May.

The June meeting will be held at the Evergreen Methodist Church.

These two young gentlemen seem to be unusually happy about their jobs as ringbearers.....do you suppose they had taken a peek at the reception 'goodies' and decided it was worth it after all?

B. H. Paulette 111, left, and Jason Payne, right, were ringbearers in the Herndon-Gentry wedding in June of 1978
